Biography

Seattle based dancer, instructor and choreographer Laura Ann Smyth began her journey as an artist at age 4 in Canada. Smyth's versatile and conscious dance background as well as her passion for the preservation of jazz dance and its role in the academy, has afforded her many opportunities. Smyth uses her wide range of dance exposure as the basis for her teaching, allowing herself along with her students to examine and experience dance through various lenses. Rhythmic in quality, joyous in spirit and precise in technique, Smyth's teaching style is unique and inclusive.
